1477 Reichhalter – Eat & Sleep

A HOUSE WITH HISTORY

For over half a millennium, the Reichhalter guesthouse has stood in Lana in South Tyrol, timeless and enduring. As an addition to their Schwarzschild Art of Living hotel, the Dissertori family renovated this ancient gem. They brought it back to life in the summer of 2018 as an "Eat & Sleep" Location with eight rooms at the foot of Braunsberg Castle.

At 1477 Reichhalter the focus is on the essentials, with a clear preference for authenticity and tradition. Enjoying the simple and good things without distractions. Hearing the rushing of the stream, sensing the materials of the house, and perhaps even having time to get reacquainted with oneself.

The renovated house expresses this simplicity through the calm, reductionist architecture of Zeno Bampi and the clear, traditional outfitting by interior designer Christina von Berg. Selected materials, surfaces and patterns encourage the guest to go on an interior journey; they meet her/his deep wish for affiliation and unity. Augmented by organic natural cosmetics by Susanne Kaufmann, this sense of wellbeing pervades all eight rooms, which are named by tradition after previous owners and appellations of the house.

Rooms and architecture: reduced to the essentials

1477 Reichhalter has eight rooms which continue the history of the house up to the present and into the future. The rooms are named after former owners of the house - Schönmüller (35m²), Erasmus (20m²), Balthasar (28m²), Helmsdorf (26m²), Mözpanckh (35m²), Muhl (28m²), Brodtbank (28m²) and Stadele (25m²) – and decorated with artworks by Jasmine Deporta. All eight rooms have bathroom with shower, Wi-Fi, a safe, bathrobes, bath sandals, Susanne Kaufmann™ organic treats, Simmons Beautyrest® mattresses, Marshall Bluetooth speakers and a yoga mat. The Schönmüller and Mözpanckh rooms also have their own tile stoves.

Eating and drinking in 1477 Reichhalter: simply good food

Guests of 1477 Reichhalter will find a small but delightful café and restaurant where hosts Martina and Andreas Heinisch offer menus that change weekly in a Mediterranean guesthouse style. The menu changes seasonally. Like in the sister hotels Schwarzschnied and Villa Arnica, almost all of the ingredients used come from local suppliers. At breakfast the marmalade is homemade, the honey is from the local alp, and the bread is from the bakery next door. The restaurant seat 50 people and has a charming outdoor area under a pergola.

Hotel guests of 1477 Reichhalter can also enjoy the offerings of sister hotel Schwarzschnied, which is just a few minutes away. These include a 1000m² spa with a view of the South Tyrolean mountains, the restaurant "La Fucina" with the finest in Slow Food and Show Food, and activities like yoga, guided hikes and bike rental.
